

A TALE OF TWO CONSTITUTIONS

Conference

PALACE OF VERSAILLES | 18 SEP 2017

Program

-
- 8:00 a.m. Registration & Welcome
- 9:00 a.m. Panel One: American and First French Constitutions: Influence, Similarity, and Divergence
- 10:30 a.m. The American Founding in Paris, Francois-Henri Briard, Avocat at the Conseil d'Etat and Court of Cassation, President of the Vergennes Institute
- 11:30 a.m. Recreating American and French Constitutional "Conventions," Nicholas Cole, University of Oxford
- 12:00 p.m. Luncheon Reception
- 1:00 p.m. Luncheon Presentation: The French Civil Law Tradition and American Constitutional Thought, William Ewald, University of Pennsylvania
- 1:30 p.m. Panel Two: Montesquieu, the French Enlightenment, and American Constitutional Thought
- 3:00 p.m. Coffee Break
- 3:30 p.m. Panel Three: Divergent Histories: Religious Freedom in France and America and its Relevance for Comparative Constitutional Law

Sponsored by the Vergennes Society, Quil I at Oxford, UVU Center for Constitutional Studies, The Palace of Versailles, the International Center for Law & Religious Studies &
The US Embassy in France

Register by 13 September
150 EUROS PER PERSON
75 EUROS FOR GOVERNMENT, NON-
PROFITS, & ACADEMICS
25 EUROS FOR STUDENTS

LEGAL EDUCATION CREDIT IN PROCESS
www.libertascc.com/tours